Our Differentiation Strategy

Brand Identity

Thirsty Girl Bottle Co.

is more than just a brand.

Like Stanley, Hydroflask, or Harley-Davidson, we are building an identity around using our product.

Thirsty Girl Bottle Co. products are for people who seek cunt-forward hydration.

Superior Product Quality

We offer the best of both worlds.

Thirsty Girl Bottle Co. products are for people who seek the best of both FASHION and FUNCTION.

How We Sell

Two channels. Very different economics. Mix shifts as the brand earns trust.

Direct-to-Consumer

$120

kept per unit

We sell straight to Casey.

Thirstygirl.com (Shopify), Instagram ads, TikTok Shop, Amazon

Wholesale

$60

kept per unit

Stores buy from us, resell to Casey.

Specialty outdoor, premium athleisure, boutique retail

Wholesale rollout — who we target, when

Year 2

Boutique pilot

20% wholesale

Free People × Movement · Bandier · Carbon38 · small run of LA + NYC boutiques

Year 3

Specialty outdoor + premium athleisure

35% wholesale

REI · Backcountry · Moosejaw · Outdoor Voices · Alo Yoga

Year 4-5

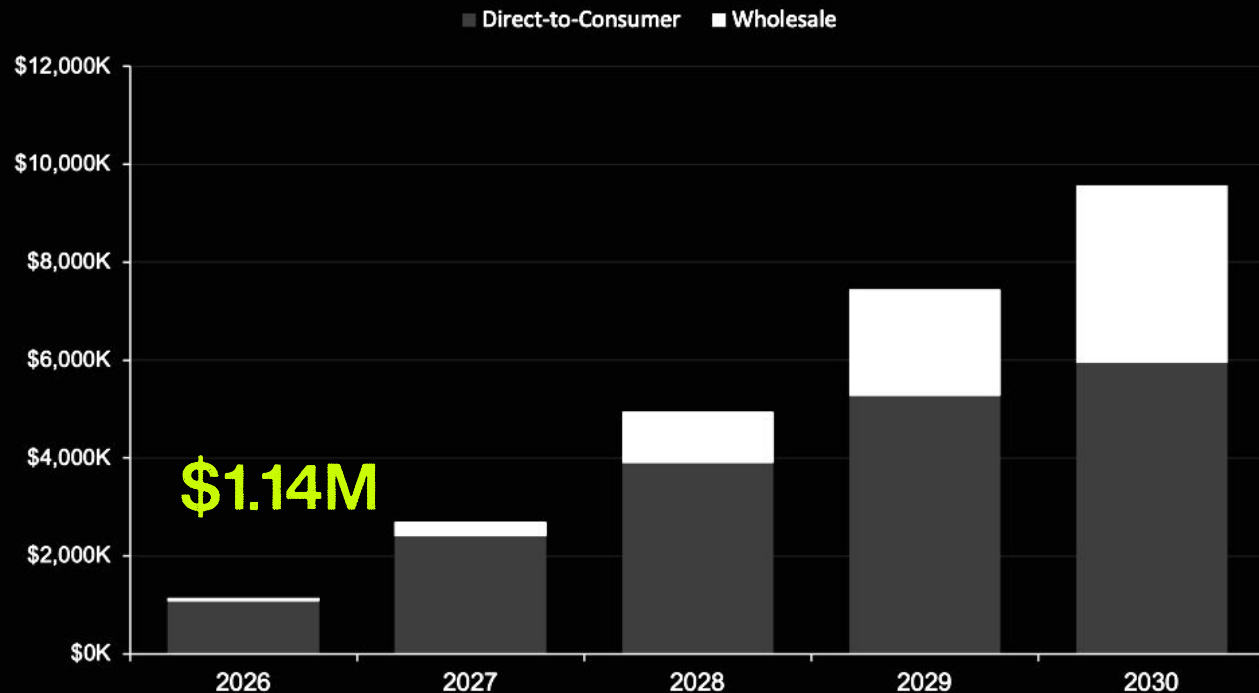

National distribution

45-55% wholesale

Nordstrom · Anthropologie · Dick's Sporting Goods · Selfridges (UK launch)

Y1 is 90% D2C — no major retailer stocks an unproven brand. We earn wholesale distribution through brand heat and D2C proof points.

Recommendation

Proceed, Under 3 Conditions:

Validate Pricing

Run a 500-unit pre-order campaign. If it converts, we know $150 works

DTC Before Wholesale

Higher margins, better brand control, prove demand before approaching retailers.

Commit Full Capital

Mitch needs $750-$850K and must accept we won't break even until Year 2.

Why this works.

Osprey & CamelBak won't pivot to fashion – their brands don't permit it.

Stanley proved premium drinkware can go viral. Brand compounds with scale. Cultural momentum grows quickly.

Stay Thirsty...
